

CCC provides Software as a Service (SaaS) to over 70% of insurance industry related to auto physical damage and bodily injury aspects of the accidents and claims. These internship positions will be working on new products and services utilizing technologies such as AI, IOT (Telematics), Natural Language Processing, Drones, and Cloud Computing. Most of the Internships will be within the incubation facilities within CCC known as "Innovation Foundry" where interns work alongside data, computer vision, system, application, and data base engineers/scientists developing new products and services utilizing the above mentioned technologies. These positions will be at the company's headquarter located in Merchandise Mart on the river in the great Chicago downtown.